WHAT DOES ZIP DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and transaction history
- Payment history and account balance
- Credit history and credit scores

How?
All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Zip chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Zip Co US, Inc.

What we do

How does Zip protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We authorize our employees to access your information only when necessary, and we require third-parties to protect your information.

How does Zip collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan
- open an account
- provide account information
- pay your bills

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
Definitions

| Affiliates     | Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
|                   | • Our affiliates include companies such as Zip Money Payments Pty Ltd. |
| Nonaffiliates | Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
|                   | • Zip may share nonpublic personal information with nonaffiliates to market to you. This may include your name, e-mail address, telephone number, or postal address. Nonaffiliates may include Affiliate Marketplaces, and Nonaffiliate Financial Companies. |
| Joint marketing | A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.
|                   | • Zip does not jointly market. |

Other important information

California Customers

If your account has a California billing address, we will not share your personal information except to the extent permitted under California law.

Vermont Customers

We will not share information we collect about you with nonaffiliates, except as permitted by law, including with your consent or to service your account. We will not disclose information about your creditworthiness to our affiliates and will not disclose your personal information, financial information, credit report, or health information to nonaffiliated third parties to market to you, other than as permitted by Vermont law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures.
